SFONSORED WALK in aid to BRING ANWAR'S CHILDERN HOME

DATE: 8th Pebruary, 1981 TIME: 10.00am FLACE: COTAL CATHEDRAL

Anwar Ditta, a Birmingham born Asian woman living in Rochdale, has been fighting for 42 years to bring her three children(Saima 6, Imran 7, Kamran 9) to live with her here. Numerous applications and appeals have been rejected. Anwar and her husband have been told to stop claiming tax allowances for the children and that past allowances can be reclaimed. This will mean yet another tribunal. The Home Office denies that these children, born while she was in Pakistan, are hers.

Anwar hasn't given up fighting - The campaign needs money desperately to pay off legal debts. Funds are also required to help gather more evidence from Pakistan to counter the lies of the Home Office. This is why we are holding a SPONSORED WAIK in Sheffield. The aim is to raise funds for Anwar's case and also publise the way Immigration laws are destroying so many black people's lives.
