

- * As the Bradford 12 trial draws into its 7th - and probably last - week, victory is in sight.
- * But now, more than at any other time, the authorities in the court and their masters, must be made to realise that we will settle for nothing less than TOTAL VICTORY: FREEDOM FOR ALL of our brothers who are in the dock.
- * IT IS VITAL FOR THIS PURPOSE TO STAGE A STRONG EXPRESSION OF SUPPORT FOR OUR DEMAND OUTSIDE AND INSIDE THE COURT IN THIS LAST WEEK.

N.B.: FINAL MASS PICKET: WED 9 JUNE, 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.
PLEASE MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO MOBILISE AND ATTEND.

The case for the defence is expected to close sometime on Friday 4th June. Over the last few days, defence counsel have called in a series of witnesses who have succeeded in drawing out a clear picture of the widespread racist violence that is a daily reality for black people throughout the country, and in Bradford in particular.

This has followed statements from the dock by defendants, all of whom have confirmed the evidence given by Tarlochan Gata-Aura from the witness box on Wednesday 26 and Thursday 27 June.

One of the 12, Jayesh Amin, has already been freed. The remaining 11 are pleading not guilty to the charges.

There is no doubt that this is a show trial. It is meant to intimidate us from organising ourselves in defence of our rights ..... in self defence .. BUT WE WILL NOT BE SILENCED.

THE ONLY CONSPIRACY IS POLICE CONSPIRACY!
