Dear Jay,

re: Leeds Crown Court

I am writing to confirm that all Defendants in the Bradford 12 Court Case will be required to attend Leeds Crown Court this coming Monday, the 7th December 1981 at 10.30 a.m. for what is called "a mention" which is mainly an administrative hearing at which various questions will be decided, namely the question of whether the trial is to be heard in Leeds or Bradford, the approximate date, the length of the trial and any variations of bail which we want to request meanwhile.

You will need to be over in Leeds certainly by 9.45 a.m. on Monday morning for a brief talk before the hearing, and, hopefully, after the hearing is over, we shall be able to get together for a legal conference with Gareth as well.

With best wishes until next Monday morning.

Yours sincerely,

Ruth
