

Dear Jay,

It was really good to see you again. I was only sorry that I couldn't stay to see the others. Anyway you were looking good and keeping cool. I had arrived in Bradford for the march on the Saturday. During my visit I stayed in your room! I also met your sisters. I left for Oxford Monday evening. I got home at 2 a.m. I was up again (just) for work at eight o'clock.

Anyway I'll be signing off now. I hope you enjoyed the drink which Reg brought for you.

Mark.
