

Manjit Kaur Defence Campaign

Manjit and Palbinder live in Ardwick, Manchester. Their life is here, friends, work and home.

The Home Office want to deport her, even though her daughter, Palbinder will stay here.

Her struggle has lasted more than three years now, and in the current political climate it is critical that all possible support is mobilised.

PROTEST at Manjits Appeal Oct 15 9.30 am

Aldine House,
Bridge St West
Manchester

The Appeal will last all day.

Food will be available.

Free transport is being provided from the following points:

Longsight Market	9am
Monten St Gurdwara	9am
Upper Chorlton Rd Gurdwara	9am

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP

- 1) Come along on the 15th October - bring your family, friends etc.
- 2) Send a telegram or write a letter to the Home Office, Queen Anne's Gate, London and the Adjudicator, Immigration Appeal Tribunal

Aldine House, Bridge St West, Manchester stating Home Office Reference No: K30336 calling for Manjit's right to stay in the country. Though telegrams are quite expensive, they have more impact - a Minister must see them all.

- 3) Get any organisation or individual to do the same.

Sikh Family History Project,
North Hulme Centre,
Jackson Crescent,
Manchester 15
