MURDER

Remember Eustace
Defend Gerald

ONCE AGAIN THE BLACK COMMUNITY IS UNDER ATTACK, BOTH FROM RACISTS ON THE STREETS, AND RACIST POLICE AND COURTS.

EUSTACE PRYCE, COLIN ROACH, MICHAEL FERREIRA, AHKTAR ALI BAIG, PETER BURNS, THE KASSAN FAMILY. THESE ARE JUST SOME OF THE NAMES OF BLACK PEOPLE MURDERED BY RACISTS.

On November 29th 1984, Eustace Pryce (16) was murdered by racists on the streets of Newham. The murder happened after racists provoked a fight & black youths responded. Although not involved in the fight, Eustace was stabbed in the back of the neck and died almost immediately.

3 plain clothes police witnessed the event from a bus. Instead of arresting the murderer, they arrested Eustace's brother Gerald on the grounds that he was in a distraught state and looked as though he was about to do something dangerous. He was denied the right to go with his dying brother to the hospital, and he was taken to Plaistow police station. When an aunt tried to visit Gerald there she was not allowed to see him. He was only released hours later to find that his brother was dead.

Gerald was re-arrested on December 18th and charged with affray. He was continually denied bail and only released on January 7th under restrictive bail conditions. The white murderer on the other hand was only arrested after considerable community pressure and was given bail almost immediately, on the grounds that it would be wrong to keep him in prison over Christmas.

The bail conditions imposed on Gerald (which were only reduced in July) meant that he couldn't come into Newham to see his family, friends or pregnant girlfriend. Gerald has been denied the basic human right to mourn with his family while the murderer of his brother walks free.

The Pryce family are not alone in their suffering, and the catalogue of violence goes on and on.

THE MESSAGE FROM THE POLICE AND COURTS IS CLEAR. THERE IS NO JUSTICE FOR BLACK PEOPLE. WHEN MEMBERS OF OUR COMMUNITY ARE MURDERED, THEIR FAMILIES ARE TREATED AS CRIMINALS.

The trial has started and it seems already that the prosecution is aiming to reduce the conviction of the alleged murderer to manslaughter if that. But the brutality of the crime has emerged even more, with evidence that they stamped on Eustace as he lay dying. Community pressure resulted in Gerald's bail conditions being partly relaxed and only community pressure will finally bring about:

JUSTICE FOR THE PRYCES - don't let them get away with murder.

There are pickets of the Old Bailey every Monday during the trial from 12 - 2 p.m. and every evening from 3.45 - 4.45 p.m. to ensure that the alleged murderer does not walk from the court without protest. Please make every effort to support these pickets which are silent in memory of Eustace.
